

Seamless Flooring Systems

Unique, one hour cure, acrylic Methyl-Methacrylate system that have been recognized for superior quality and longevity for over 45 years.

Reduced down time

Non-porous, stain resistant

100% reactive resin system

Solvent free

Impervious/waterproof

Many color and texture options

High resistance to chemicals, mechanical abuse, abrasion

Successful installation in restaurants, freezers, coolers, breweries, wineries, retail, supermarkets, restrooms, health and fitness clubs.

Urethane/cementitious systems designed for long-term toughness and durability in extreme environments. Urethane/cementitious systems are engineered from proprietary formulations to meet thermal shock, bacterial growth and a wide range of aggressive chemicals.

Superior thermal shock resistance

Ability to withstand aggressive cleaning, including steam cleaning

High impact resistance

Superior resistance to bacterial and fungi growth, including e.coli and salmonella

Monolithic impervious system

Successful installation in meat processing plants, industrial kitchens, breweries, wineries, bakeries, seafood processing plants, dairy production, slaughterhouse facilities, food processing plants.

Epoxy and polyurethane resinous flooring systems that offer diversity and time tested performance that range from decorative to aggressive.

Superior chemical and abrasion resistance

Durable, impact resistance

Anti-microbial option available

Many different color and textural varieties

Seamless flooring systems designed specifically for your facility

Successful installation in all varieties of commercial and industrial floors, ie. hospitals, automotive dealerships, pharmaceutical facilities, aircraft hangers, correctional facilities, educational facilities, commercial and retail spaces, office buildings, automotive service facilities.